Construction kicked off last week to expand Waverly's Hy-Vee. The renovated store will include a larger food court and include Regal Liquors. From left, store director Joel Fluge, construction supervisor Dwayne Donels and manager of perishables Brock Sands.

Mr. Fluge, Manager of the Hy-Vee store in Waverly, described the 22,000 sq. ft store expansion as a 21st Century store and similar to the new Omaha Hy-Vee stores. Highlights of the expansion include:

- Regal liquor – moved into the new space
- Organic health market
- Updated floral
- Digital one hour photo
- Chinese department
- Meat/cheese section – increased by 300%
- Frozen section – increased by 200%
- Eight foot fresh seafood compartment
- Deli foods – increased
